

The Annual Willow Domestic Violence Center Summit

Building Safer Futures: Together We Will

Comprehensive Learning Outcomes:

1. Participants will have a better understanding of and the ability to recognize domestic violence relationship dynamics, including identifying warning signs of a dangerous relationship, abusive tactics, trauma responses and barriers for survivors in domestic violence relationships.
2. Participants will have a better understanding of the concept of Trauma-Informed Care and how adopting a Trauma-Informed mindset and using Trauma-Informed skills and principles as a provider, can help prevent violence, interrupt the cycle of violence and bridge gaps for survivors and community partners.
3. Participants will start to develop strategies to foster culturally competent and survivor-driven approaches to domestic violence that address system gaps, inequalities, and barriers for survivors.
4. Participants will have a better understanding of the concept of a Coordinated Community Response and gain knowledge, tools and skills that will help them understand their personal role and responsibility in a Coordinated Community Response model
