Dear Friends,

This year, our commitment to safety, justice, healing, and hope has never been more urgent—or more impactful. We provided over [insert number] survivors with safe shelter, crisis intervention, legal advocacy, and vital resources to help them reclaim their lives. In every call answered and every door opened, we affirmed one powerful truth: no one should face violence alone. Our team, alongside dedicated volunteers and partners, worked tirelessly to ensure that survivors had a place to turn—day or night.

Through strategic partnerships, we strengthened the path to justice for survivors. We advocated for protective orders, supported policy changes, and empowered survivors with the tools to navigate complex legal systems. But justice is more than a courtroom outcome—it's the daily act of restoring power to those who've had it taken away. Every legal success and every survivor-led decision marks a critical step toward long-term healing and systemic change.

Above all, we saw healing take root and hope renewed. Whether through trauma-informed counseling, support groups, or simply a safe place to rest, we bore witness to extraordinary resilience. Survivors are not just surviving—they are leading, rebuilding, and thriving. As we look to the year ahead, we remain steadfast in our mission: to create a future where every person lives free from violence, grounded in dignity and possibility. Thank you for standing with us in this life-changing work.
